PETITION UNDER RULE 181(a) TO
REQUEST A WITHDRAW OF A HOLDING OF ABANDONMENT

Dear Sir:

This petition, pursuant to Rule 181(a), seeks relief from an erroneous determination that the above-reference Application ("Application") has been abandoned for failure to timely or properly respond to Notice of Missing Parts ("Notice of Missing Parts") mailed on November 3, 2000.

I. ACTION REQUESTED

Applicants petition the Commissioner, respectfully requesting the following relief:

1. Kindly withdraw the holding of abandonment of the Application dated March 10, 2004; and
2. Kindly proceed with full and complete examination of the Application.

II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Application was filed on September 7, 2000 by Express Mail deposit. Applicants were then notified of deficiencies in the Application by the Notice of Missing Parts, which is attached as Exhibit A. Specifically, Applicants were notified that the oath or declaration was unsigned and that a surcharge of one hundred thirty dollars and zero cents ($130.00) for filing a late oath or declaration was due. On December 20, 2000 by a Certificate of Mailing, the Applicants submitted a Response to the Notice of Missing Parts ("Response"), which is attached as Exhibit B. Specifically, the Response included a signed declaration, an assignment, and a check in the amount of one hundred seventy dollars and zero cents ($170.00) to pay for the late submission of the declaration and to pay for the recordation of the assignment.

On December 27, 2000, Applicants were sent a return post card notifying the Applicants that the Response had been received. The return post card is attached as Exhibit C.

The Applicants were then subsequently sent a Notice of Abandonment ("Notice of Abandonment"), which is attached as Exhibit D, on March 10, 2004 for failure to timely or properly respond to the Notice of Missing Parts.

III. POINT OF REVIEW

In support of the Action requested above, Applicants respectfully request review of the Notice of Missing Parts, Response, the return post card, and the Notice of Abandonment. Applicants also request a determination by the Commissioner that the Notice of Abandonment be withdrawn because:

1. The Applicants filed the Response in a timely manner because the Response was mailed within two months of date of mailing of the Notice of Missing Parts.

2. The Applicants provided a signed declaration and the one hundred thirty dollar and zero cent ($130.00) fee for a late submission of the declaration.

Applicants respectfully submits that the Notice of Abandonment be withdrawn because Applicants have complied with the statutory and the regulatory requirements associated with the Application.

IV. ARGUMENTS

According the M.P.E.P § 711.04(c), if the Applicants reply to an Office action with a declaration of mailing that was not received by the Patent Office, then the Applicants can seek relief by means of a petition to withdraw of the holding of abandonment. Under Rule 181(a), “[a] petition can be taken to the Commission...[t]o invoke the supervisory authority of the Commissioner in appropriate circumstances.” Applicants contend that the Patent Office had received the Response mailed on December 20, 2000 because the return post card was mailed to the Applicants on December 27, 2000 that the Patent Office. However, Applicants respectfully assert that the Patent Office has subsequently lost or misplaced the Response. Hence, Applicants request relief under Rule 181(a) by means of the withdrawal of the Notice of Abandonment because of the misplacement or loss of the Response that would necessarily invoke the supervisory authority of the Commissioner.

V. CONCLUSION

Applicants, therefore, respectfully request that the Commissioner grant this Petition in all respects.

Applicant does not believe that any fees are due; however, in the event that any fees are due, the Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge any required fees due (other than issue fees), and to credit any overpayment made, in connection with the filing of this paper to Deposit Account No. 50-0605 of CARR LLP.

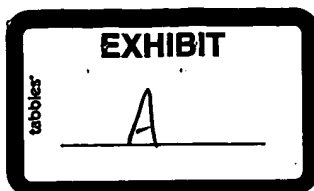

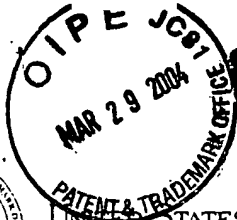

Respectfully submitted,
